

Iowa Corrections Association

Policies

 After March, 1995, policies listed in order of date adopted*

Audit Committee

1. The ICA Annual Fiscal audit will be conducted in accordance with the ICA financial policies and procedures as outlined in the ICA by-laws.
2. Four persons will serve on the audit team each year. These are to include the President-Elect, Vice President, and two members of the Board of Directors from the At-Large positions. The At-Large Members of the audit team should include a person from the previous fiscal year's Board and a person newly elected to the Board.
3. The Treasurer, and any others directly involved with the treasury including the new Treasurer, should be available at the time of the audit.
4. Upon completion of the election process, the outgoing and incoming Treasurers should arrange for the transfer of duties and accounts as close to July 1st as possible (to occur every two years as the Treasurer changes). The Audit Committee will work in conjunction with the Treasurer to schedule the audit soon thereafter during the month of July.

Budget Process and Payment Requests

The Treasurer is responsible for reviewing all payment requests and dispersing appropriate reimbursement. All ICA funds shall be expended in a fiscally responsible manner consistent with the standards listed below.

1. All requests for expenditures will be approved by a committee chairperson or member of the Board of Directors on the standardized format. In all cases, receipts shall be provided.
2. The Treasurer is not authorized to issue checks upon verbal request.
3. No checks or verbal requests will be authorized which exceed line item appropriates without prior Board approval.
4. The Treasurer will provide a Treasurer's report to the Board of Directors at each Board meeting.
5. The Treasurer will provide each committee chairperson with the appropriate budget report on a timely basis.
6. Expenditures will not be authorized for the following:
 - a. Purchase of alcoholic beverages
 - b. Refreshments for committee members.

Campaign Policy

1. There is to be no campaigning within 30 feet of the ballot box.
2. The ballot box is to be visible and attended.
3. The ballot box is to be open at the same time as conference registration, unless otherwise specified.
4. The elections committee is responsible for monitoring of the campaign and elections procedure. Any questions or concerns are to be brought to this committee.
5. Online voting shall be allowed for each election when possible. The Election Committee shall ensure information is sent out to members in a timely manner including the election period and electronic voting cutoff date.

Conference and Training Registration

All registration and pre-registration for ICA conferences and training sessions shall be handled in a manner consistent with the standards listed below.

1. Registration and pre-registration amounts will be set by the conference chairs and approved by the Board of Directors. Non-ICA members will be charged an additional fee for conferences and training workshops.
2. All participants are required to register online with payment made electronically or to be mailed to the Treasurer. Paper pre-registration will typically not be accepted.
3. Online conference registration will be open and made available at least six weeks in advance of the conference, with notification sent out at that time. Pre-registration payment must be postmarked no later than two weeks prior to the conference date.
4. Any agency submitting a purchase order/agency voucher will be required to have the names of the people attending the conference and the amount of the registration fee to be paid for each person, mailed to the registration committee or the ICA Treasurer by the pre-registration deadline. (EXAMPLE: John Doe, #30.00 ICA Member, Jane Doe, $55.00 non-ICA member).
5. The agency check in the amount of the purchase order must be received no later than 30 days after the conference.
6. In the event a pre-registered individual is unable to attend, a substitute may attend. Pre-registration refunds for workshops/conferences will be granted up to three days prior to the workshop/conference. A $5.00 processing fee for refunds will be deducted. No refunds will be granted after that date.
7. Anyone from another state may attend ICA training the member cost if they belong to the home state's correctional association and show verification of the membership.
8. In the event it becomes necessary to cancel a one-day workshop, the decision to do so will be made no later than three days prior to the workshop and anyone who pre-registered will be notified. Those people planning to register the day of the workshop can call the organizer of the workshop to verify whether it will be presented as scheduled.
